I Am Play-doh

by the Lillywhite Family

You can make a snake out of me.
I am fruity in hue but vanilla in scent.
Rolling, stretching, breaking, and then squishing and reforming.
I am like crumbling leaves.

I am fruity in hue but vanilla in scent.
I am sticky.
I am like crumbling leaves.
I’m a squishy type of monster.

I am sticky.
Step on me, I’ll smash and stiffen in your shoe
I’m a squishy type of monster.
Remember to wash your hands.

Step on me, I’ll smash and stiffen in your shoe
Rolling, stretching, breaking, and then squishing and reforming.
Remember to wash your hands.
You can make a snake out of me.

The Lillywhite Family: Mike, Lori, Erik (14), Ethan (10), Brendan (7), & Lauryn (4). This poem was made as part of our annual family poetry festival. Together we enjoy Lego building, reading, hiking, freeze tag, ice cream, and game nights.